OFFICERS REPORTS

21. Mayor Morrissey mentioned a press conference was held today by area leaders supporting a referendum on the March ballot to create a municipal electrical aggregation program.
22. Mayor Morrissey reported last Thursday Chief Epperson recognized Joe Owen as the Civilian Coordinator for the Rockford Police Department's Citizen's Assisting Police (CAP) Program. The Program was implemented in May of 2012 and has fifteen (15) volunteers that provide a wide range of services with over 3,000 hours donated to the program. The Rockford Police Department is currently taking applications. To download a CAP application, visit the following website: www.rockfordil.gov/police.aspx.
23. Mayor Morrissey advised Reid Montgomery, Director of Community Development, has distributed the operating procedures for property evictions and a brochure explaining some common code violations.
24. Mayor Morrissey reported the passing of Rockford native Janice Voss and acknowledged her career accomplishments which included NASA Astronaut status and participating on five shuttle missions.
25. Alderman Jacobson announced a Redistricting Map Committee meeting will be held on Tuesday, February 21st at 5:30 pm at City Hall, first floor lobby area.

26. Alderman Hervey announced the 5th Ward monthly meeting will be held on February 23, 2012 and advised the agenda includes an update on South Main and Orchid Streets and information on the municipal electrical aggregation program. She invited council members and their constituents to attend the meeting.
27. Alderman Hervey echoed Mayor Morrissey's comments regarding Joe Owen and congratulated him for being recognized as the Civilian Coordinator for the CAP Program.
28. Alderman Hervey recognized Jonah Katz, Community Development Department, and the residents of the 5th Ward and adjacent wards for their collaboration and commitment to the South Main Revitalization Project.
29. Alderman Thompson-Kelly asked if the City still receives 30% of the fines collected or has the formula changed?

Patrick Hayes, Legal Director, explained the formula changed last year when the City withdrew from traffic court, but it does not apply to most collection cases because they are older.

30. Alderman Johnson thanked Alderman Hervey for the invitation to attend her ward meeting to learn more about the municipal electrical aggregation program and suggested scheduling more presentations before the March election.
31. Alderman Johnson read a portion of Mark Ackerman's email regarding garbage pickup on the street and referred his concerns to the Community Development Department.
32. Alderman Johnson lauded Liz Jurasek, Community Development Department, for her commitment to the hoarding problem and suggested implementing a City team to address this issue.

Mayor Morrissey thanked Liz for her efforts and appreciated the "Letter to the Editor" in the Rockford Register Star commending Liz on her working with hoarding.

33. Alderman Beach reported Paul Callighan, ComEd, attended the 10th Ward meeting last week, addressing power outage problems and ComEd's plan to remedy them. He also mentioned Tim Hanson, Director of Public Works, discussed the municipal electrical aggregation program.
34. Alderman Beach suggested attaching outstanding traffic fines to license plate fees as a means to collect that debt.

Patrick Hayes, Legal Director, explained the State's Comptroller's Office has established a local debt recovery program to address the issue of outstanding fines.

35. Alderman Elyea mentioned attending the Economic Development Entrepreneur Network (EDEN) workshop at Katie's Cup last week and read their mission statement. She thanked Mayor Morrissey for the idea of creating the network and attending the workshop on Friday.
